

---

JICL
BLINDED REVIEW

Insert an "X" in the box you want to indicate and send the pdf file in 2 versions with and without signature to the address info@jiclonline.org

TITLE

1. Overall evaluation

A  max      B       C       D  min

2. Originality

to be understood as the level at which the product introduces a new way of thinking and/or interpreting in relation to the scientific object of the research, and distinguishes itself and innovates with respect to previous approaches on the same object

A  max      B       C       D  min

3. Relevance and Impact to be understood as the level to which the product exerts, or is likely to exert, an influence on the international scientific community or, for the disciplines in which it is appropriate, on the national one

A  max      B       C       D  min

4. Methodological rigour-Presentation

be understood as the level at which the product the research objectives and adopts a methodology appropriate to the research object and demonstrates that the objectives have been achieved

A  max      B       C       D  min

5. References to literature, jurisprudence and main practice

be understood as the level at which the product clearly presents the state of the art in the literature, jurisprudence and main practice

A  max      B       C       D  min

6. Final evaluation

Admitted to publication

Admitted to publication with changes

Not admitted to publication

7. Reviewer blind comments to Author (Explanation of the evaluation and suggestions for the Author)

If necessary the anonymous reviewer offers some purely constructive suggestions in the belief that the manuscript might benefit from some minor adjustments from a structural and editorial perspective.

STRENGTHS:

add your comments to Author

POINTS TO REVISE:

add your comments to Author

8. Reviewer confidential comments to Editors

Add your comments to Editors

Date

Signature